Education There are well known public schools in the area including Rookwood and Farleigh at Andover; Pilgrims', St Swithun's, Twyford and Winchester to the south east; Chafyn Grove, Godolphin, Leehurst Swan, Leaden Hall and Cathedral School in Salisbury (see www.iscis-sw.co.uk). Independent grammars include South Wilts Grammar School for girls and Bishops Wordsworth for boys in Salisbury. Various state primary and secondary schools are found in the surrounding areas (see www.hants.gov.uk).

Local, Sporting & Recreational A quiet village in the heart of open farmland, Over Wallop has a village pub, The White Hart, with the George Inn and the parish hall at Middle Wallop. The farm lies in the parish of Over Wallop, with the local church of St Peters nearby. The town of Andover provides the most immediate general shopping, sports and leisure facilities with a wider range to be enjoyed in Winchester, Salisbury and Southampton. For further local information see www.hants.gov.uk and www.upmystreet.com.

Outriding can be enjoyed directly from the property with plenty of tracks leading off some roadwork and there is an abundance of walking and cycling opportunities directly into surrounding countryside. Racing is at Salisbury, Newbury, Wincanton and Bath. Hunting is with The Tedworth with other hunts nearby.
